To Whom It May Concern:

It is a pleasure and honor to recommend Rabbi Amy Scheinerman as a true scholar-in-residence. Over the years Rabbi Scheinerman has offered her vast array of knowledge to her colleagues and friends. Her teaching and preaching has inspired our congregation.

Rabbi Scheinerman has a unique approach to teaching. She makes the text "sing," as it were, because her style brings the words from the page to the heart as well as to the mind. She incorporates our tradition into the matters that concern contemporary Jews on both a religious and secular level. Those who had the opportunity to learn from her truly found out what a capable scholar is able to do! Many who were present commented on her ability to relate; many more who were not present heard from their friends and told me they were sorry they weren't able to attend.

Sincerely,

Peter H. Grumbacher
