

To Whom It May Concern:

I am pleased to recommend Rabbi Amy Scheinerman to you as a guest scholar. Rabbi Scheinerman spent a Shabbat in our congregation and impressed all who had the pleasure to learn from her.

The sermon she gave was learned and inspirational, conveying an important moral lesson. It was a pleasure to be in two classes that Rabbi Scheinerman taught. She made difficult material accessible and offered a novel approach towards well-known passages.

The unique blog she maintains is a wonderful resource that mirrors the quality of her teaching. It should be no surprise that Rabbi Scheinerman is seen as a wonderful teacher for her rabbinic colleagues – and she was a memorable teacher for members of my congregation.

שלום, Shalom,

Irwin A. Zeplovitz
